ALLENTOWN, PA., May 23.-Richmond again won a double-beader from Allen-town to-day. While the Southerners played good ball and deserved the victories, they were favored with streaks of good enough to win the game. Errors by Henry and Tate at critical stages gave the visitors the second game. In the latter game Pitcher West kept the Champions guessing up to the ninth inning; The score: First Game-

State and Provincial Boards of Health Meet

INTERESTING PAPERS ARE READ.

And Subjects Connected with Hygiene Discussed at Length - Sixteen States are Represented-The Delegates Present,

The State and Pronvincial Boards of Health of North America met in their fourteenth annual conference in the assembly room on the fifth floor of the Jefferson Hotel yesterday. The organization held three sessions, and a number of highly interesting papers were read.

Dr. Felix Formento, the president o the organization, called the meeting to order at 19 o'clock, and called on Rev. Robert P. Kerr, of the First Presbyterian church, of this city, who offered a fer vent prayer.

Dr. Paulus A. Irving, the secretary of the Virginia Board of Health, then in a tew appropriate remarks introduced Governor Tyler, who made one of his characteristic humorous addresses of welcome. SIXTEEN STATES.

There were sixteen States of the Union represented, but inasmuch as the city of Richmond is ratner a long distance away from the great Northwest, that section was not very largely represented. The secretary of the association, Dr. Hurty, of Indianapolis, and Dr. Pelletier, of Montreal the treasurer, submitted of Montreal, the treasurer, submittee their reports, which showed the organiza-tion to be in very good condition. Brief addresses of welcome were also made by Drs. Cuipeper and Martin, of the Virginia State Board, which were highly appreciated by the visitors.

Inghly appreciated by the visitors.

There was only one paper read during the morning session, which had been proposed by the State Board of Health from Minnesota. The subject, which was "The Function of the Conference of the State and Provincial Boards of Health," proved to be a very interesting one, and caused a rather lengthy discussion, in which a large number of the delayates. which a large number of the delegates which a large number of the delegates participated.

At noon a fecess for lunch was taken and the conference again convened at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when the following papers were read and discussed to some extent:

INTERESTING PAPER.

Proposed by the Board of Health of "The Value of the Veterinarian on State Boards of Health."

The paper was read by Dr. Nelson, of Washington, and the discussion was opened by Dr. Coniff, of Iowa, and Dr. Hurty, of Indiana.

Then followed two papers proposed by the State Board of Ohio. The first one was on "To what extent should quaran-line restrictions be carried on in regard to (a) persons who have been exposed to smallpox, (b) the families of such per-sons?"

Dr. Probst, of Ohio, read the paper and the general discussion was opened by Dr. Lee, of Pennsylvania, and Dr. Watson, of New Hampshire. The other paper was on the following

"When vaccination of school children is ordered, what length of time since former successful vaccination should ex-cuse one from vaccination?" The paper was read by Dr. Standlee, Missouri and

State Board of Indiana on "The probable danger of typhoid fever being increased Michigan, read the paper and the discussion was opened by Dr. Gill, of Kansas LABORATORY OF HYGIENE. LABORATORY OF HYGIENE.

The evening session opened at 8 o'clock and the first paper read was one proposed by the Board of Health of the State of Michigan on the following subject: "Should not every State university maintain a loboratory of hygiene?" The paper

The speaker stated that the Board of Health in his State had announced its readiness t whenever it was deemed necessary the cows that appeared to be affected by berculosis, were killed. The Be however, was soon overrun with applica-tions, as every one who owned any milk cows wanted to have them inspected.

FOR PURE FOOD.

Dr. Fulton, of Maryland, argued the importance or giving more attention to the procuring of pure-articles of food, and especially of the necessity of watching the condition of milk cows.

Dr. Paulaus A. Irving, of this city, the secretary of the State Roard of Health secretary of the State Board of Health of Virginia, was invited to give his views on the subject, but that gentleman replied by inviting the visitors to participate in a trip to Old Point on Thursday and and Rev. J. B. Shearer, D. D. hushed his speech, contending that education is a church function. Rev. W. S. Milne and Rev. Geo. Sum-mey, D. D. spoke in support of the report Judge T. R. James, of Missouri, followed in a short speech in which he asserted that there is no need of such schools. The free schools are enough.

Rev. J. W. Walden, D. D., secured the floor, but recess was taken till 4:20 P. M. when he spoke at length and with great vigor in support of his substitute Rev. R. P. Kerr. D. D., spoke again in behalf of the Committee's report. He nehalf of the Committee's report. He called Thornwell, Witherspoon and Dab-ney to testify in behalf of the Commit-tee's contention. He also quoted many contemporaneous authorities. Rev. James Woodrow, D. D., speke a econd time at great length against the committee's report. Rev. J. A. Dickson, of Hot Springs, Ark., called for the question and it was put. The substitute offered by Dr. Wal-den was lost by a large vote. The re-den was lost by a large vote. The re-port of the Committee was then adopted by a good majority. NORTH AND SOUTH.

An incident out of the ordinary and which shows the growing tendency of the two great bodies of the Presbyterian church in the United States to come to a better understanding, was the receipt of a telegram of greetings and salutation by the Elders of the Assembly from the Elders of the Northern Assembly now in session at Minneapolis, Minn. The text of the telegram is as follows:

"In the name of our Common Master greetings we pray in your behalf. Num. vi: 24-26; Eph. iv: 15, 16, Brethren pray for us."

FOREIGN MISSIONS OFFICE. The ministers of Richmond who presented a petition asking that the Foreign Missions office of the church he removed from Nashvilla, Tenn., to Richmond, adduce the following reasons in support of their request:

Richmond has become a great Presby-terian center. It has many able pastors and elders. Besides the faculty of Union Seminary now have their residence in Richmond. From all this material a very strong committee could always be had. If this material were not sufficient to draw from Petersburg, Norfolk, Lynch-burg, Fredericksburg, and even Wash-ington and Bellimore are within a few hours of Richmond.

The strongest committee in the world could be formed from all this material.

could be formed from all this material.

Not only this but the Board of Publication is already here and the Mission Soard and this Roard could work hand is hand and in many ways be mutually helpful to each other.

UNION SEMINARY HERE.

Still another reason is the presence great school of the prophets into contact would make the Prosbyterian Church a great missionary church. It would put-new missionary life into the Seminary in seal with them and scatter it everywher MANY ADVANTAGES.

Further still Richmond has fine bank further still Richmon has been partial to the Board. As much as $10.00 pass through their hands each year. They have much to do with foreign exchange. Richmond can supply all these needs. The railroad facilities would enter the second of the second passionality to make needs. The railroad facilities would en-able the returned missionaries to make headquarters at the Board's rooms if they were in Richmond. Nashville is far-out of their way and difficult of access. Richmond is the Mecca of Presby-terians. It is the natural Mecca of re-turned missionaries. The great majority of missionaries are from Virginia, North Carolina, or South Carolina, Of the six of missionaries are from Variana sortical Carolina, or South Carolina. Of the six missionaries at the Assembly four are from Virginia and two from South Carolina. It is no trouble for them to come to Richmond. It is very difficult for them to go to Nashville, to say nothing of expense. Many other reasons might be given.

The Board of Publication is already here. It might as well be argued that because the Navy Department is in Washington, the War Department ought to be in St. Louis, the Treasury in New Orleans, and
